

In Loving Memory of Flossie Mae Stover

"He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake." Psalm 23:3

Sunrise: October 4, 1935

Sunset: May 14, 2013

Obituary

Flossie Mae Stover was born October 4, 1935, in Laurinburg, N.C., to the late Willie and Flossie Harrington. She peacefully transitioned from this earthly life at Washington Adventist Hospital on May 14, 2013.

Flossie was educated at Laurinburg Institute in Scotland County and later moved to Washington, D.C., where she met and married the late Willie J. Stover Sr. From that union were born Harold Lee James, Bertha Ann Stover, Willie James Stover Jr., Willene Stover and Daniel Stover.

She accepted Christ at an early age and later joined The New Life Baptist Church. She worked for many major retail companies until her retirement.

She was passionate about her community through her civic duties. She was an avid sports fan who loved the Redskins, gardening and cooking — she was well-known for her collard greens and fried fish. She enjoyed reaching out and talking with family and friends every day, sharing advice and providing encouraging words. She loved spending time with her grandchildren.

Flossie was very protective of her family. She was a strong woman, loyal friend, and loving mother, who opened her heart and door to many. She had an uplifting sense of humor that kept everyone smiling, and everyone loved being around her.

Flossie was preceded in death by siblings Alease Lyles, Ezzadale Bradham, Anna Lee Harrington, Edgar Harrington, Flemon Harrington, James Harrington, Willie Harrington, Philmore Harrington, Samuel Harrington, Pecolia Harrington, Arthur Lee Ratliff, and George Ratliff.

She leaves to cherish her memories her five children Harold L. James (Owings Mill, Md.), Bertha A. Stover (Clinton, Md.), Willene Stover (Landover, Md.), Willie J. Stover Jr. (White Plains, Md.), and Daniel Stover (Landover, Md.); brothers Luke Harrington (Rachel) and Daniel Harrington (Sue); grandchildren Dwana T. Stover, Willie J. Stover III, Isaiah E. Stover, Shaquille Stover, Bryan A. James, and Jordan I. James; and two goddaughters, Nicole "Dimples" Carter and Betty Peyton. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Viewing: 10:00 a.m.

Service: 11:00 a.m.

Solid Rock Full Gospel Baptist Church
7711 Walker Mill Drive
Capitol Heights, MD 20743
Rev. Christopher G. Burrell

Friday, May 24, 2013

In Loving Memory of Flossie Mae Stover

"He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake." Psalm 23:3

Sunrise: October 4, 1935

Sunset: May 14, 2013

Obituary

Flossie Mae Stover was born October 4, 1935, in Laurinburg, N.C., to the late Willie and Flossie Harrington. She peacefully transitioned from this earthly life at Washington Adventist Hospital on May 14, 2013.

Flossie was educated at Laurinburg Institute in Scotland County and later moved to Washington, D.C., where she met and married the late Willie J. Stover Sr. From that union were born Harold Lee James, Bertha Ann Stover, Willie James Stover Jr., Willene Stover and Daniel Stover.

She accepted Christ at an early age and later joined The New Life Baptist Church. She worked for many major retail companies until her retirement.

She was passionate about her community through her civic duties. She was an avid sports fan who loved the Redskins, gardening and cooking — she was well-known for her collard greens and fried fish. She enjoyed reaching out and talking with family and friends every day, sharing advice and providing encouraging words. She loved spending time with her grandchildren.

Flossie was very protective of her family. She was a strong woman, loyal friend, and loving mother, who opened her heart and door to many. She had an uplifting sense of humor that kept everyone smiling, and everyone loved being around her.

Flossie was preceded in death by siblings Alease Lyles, Ezzadale Bradham, Anna Lee Harrington, Edgar Harrington, Flemon Harrington, James Harrington, Willie Harrington, Philmore Harrington, Samuel Harrington, Pecolia Harrington, Arthur Lee Ratliff, and George Ratliff.

She leaves to cherish her memories her five children Harold L. James (Owings Mill, Md.), Bertha A. Stover (Clinton, Md.), Willene Stover (Landover, Md.), Willie J. Stover Jr. (White Plains, Md.), and Daniel Stover (Landover, Md.); brothers Luke Harrington (Rachel) and Daniel Harrington (Sue); grandchildren Dwana T. Stover, Willie J. Stover III, Isaiah E. Stover, Shaquille Stover, Bryan A. James, and Jordan I. James; and two goddaughters, Nicole "Dimples" Carter and Betty Peyton. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Viewing: 10:00 a.m.

Service: 11:00 a.m.

Solid Rock Full Gospel Baptist Church
7711 Walker Mill Drive
Capitol Heights, MD 20743
Rev. Christopher G. Burrell

Friday, May 24, 2013

Special Day

Lord knows this is a special day,
So all who loved me, and knew me, know it's okay.
My soul's been lifted in Jesus' name,
No more worries and no more pain.

Life is just a stepping stone,
I now have eternal life,
I'm gone on home.

My special day has finally came.
To Buck, Willie, Bertha, and Harold,
I know life won't be the same.

We all have to respect that special day.
Mine just happened to be in the month of May.

I will miss you all and I know you all will
miss me.

All these beautiful mountains and clouds for
the eyes to see.

Just remember Jesus knows best,
And he knew it was time for my soul to rest.
I loved you all. I did my best.

You all should know Mama did care.
After all, I gave you all my life to share.

~ Reginald I. Price Jr.

In Appreciation

The Family of the late Flossie Mae Stover gratefully acknowledges the many acts of kindness and other
expressions of love and compassion extended towards Flossie Stover and the family. Your kindness will always be remembered and we pray

God's blessing upon you.

Interment
Fort Lincoln Cemetery
3401 Bladensburg Road
Brentwood, MD 20722

Repat will be held at:
Chapel Oaks Volunteer Fire
Department
5544 Sheriff Road
Chapel Oaks, MD 20743

designed and created by
www.thfslic.com
therfans@me.com
240 210 2214
Patent Pending
printed in the USA

Special Day

Lord knows this is a special day,
So all who loved me, and knew me, know it's okay.
My soul's been lifted in Jesus' name,
No more worries and no more pain.

Life is just a stepping stone,
I now have eternal life,
I'm gone on home.

My special day has finally came.
To Buck, Willie, Bertha, and Harold,
I know life won't be the same.

We all have to respect that special day.
Mine just happened to be in the month of May.

I will miss you all and I know you all will
miss me.

All these beautiful mountains and clouds for
the eyes to see.

Just remember Jesus knows best,
And he knew it was time for my soul to rest.
I loved you all. I did my best.

You all should know Mama did care.
After all, I gave you all my life to share.

~ Reginald I. Price Jr.

In Appreciation

The Family of the late Flossie Mae Stover gratefully
acknowledges the many acts of kindness and other
expressions of love and compassion extended
towards Flossie Stover and the family. Your

kindness will always be remembered and we pray
God's blessing upon you.

Interment
Fort Lincoln Cemetery
3401 Bladensburg Road
Brentwood, MD 20722

Repat will be held at:
Chapel Oaks Volunteer Fire
Department
5544 Sheriff Road
Chapel Oaks, MD 20743

designed and created by
www.thfslic.com
therfans@me.com
240 210 2214
Patent Pending
printed in the USA

Order of Service

Processional of Clergy and Family
Richard Jones
Hymn of Faith
Rev. Alexander Jones
The New Life Baptist
Church
Washington, D.C.

Old Testament
Kevin Gorham

New Testament
Robert Richmond

Selection by the Choir
NLBC Male Choir

Reading of the Obituary (silently)
Bridget Chatman

Remarks (limited to three minutes)
Richard Jones

The Eulogy
Rev. Christopher
G. Burrell

Recessional
"I'll Fly Away"

Final Committal and the Benediction

Order of Service

Processional of Clergy and Family
Richard Jones
Hymn of Faith
Rev. Alexander Jones
The New Life Baptist
Church
Washington, D.C.

Old Testament
Kevin Gorham

New Testament
Robert Richmond

Selection by the Choir
NLBC Male Choir

Reading of the Obituary (silently)
Bridget Chatman

Remarks (limited to three minutes)
Richard Jones

The Eulogy
Rev. Christopher
G. Burrell

Recessional
"I'll Fly Away"

Final Committal and the Benediction